A native of Dallas, my husband and I moved to Austin in 1987. After graduating from the University of North Texas with a B.S. & M.Ed., I taught elementary school for 4 years and then pursued other interests, including painting primarily in watercolor.

Nature has drawn me into its fold since the beginning of my artistic expression, over 35 years ago. I see paintings everywhere I look and strive to interpret my vision in my own unique way. I find myself looking beyond what we take for granted in everyday life, as I capture the richness of color and texture or the graceful lines or strong patterns, which others may not notice. I look for harmony, rhythm and a sense of balance, which is important in all aspects of life. My art is included in many private and corporate collections throughout the country and beyond.
